HALO PROJECT
Break the Silence

ACCREDITED TRAINING:
EXPLORING HIDDEN HARMS INCLUDING FORCED MARRIAGE, FEMALE GENITAL MUTILATION, AND HONOUR-BASED ABUSE

TELL ME MORE

The Halo Project is an award-winning national charity that supports Black and minoritised victims and survivors of domestic abuse, sexual violence and hidden harms; specialising in cases of forced marriage (FM), female genital mutilation (FGM), and honour-based abuse (HBA).

To date, the charity has supported over 2500 women, many with children, to live free from harm, as well as training hundreds of frontline professionals on hidden harms and safeguarding survivors.

Evidence shows that those best placed to train frontline practitioners are specialist support services, as they have a greater knowledge of the behaviours involved and the cultural awareness in understanding specific needs.
(Baillot et al., 2014).

HALO PROJECT'S ACCREDITED AWARENESS TRAINING AIMS TO INCREASE KNOWLEDGE AND RAISE AWARENESS OF FM, HBA AND FGM, HELPING DELEGATES WITH:

- Understanding the difference between 'forced' and 'arranged' marriage
- Spotting the signs, recognising the types of abuse and what they include
- Understanding and gaining an insight of the cultural context of FM, HBA and FGM
- Looking at prevalence and which communities are most affected
- Insight into the effects on victims and survivors of FM, HBA and FGM
- Dealing with disclosure, dos and don'ts
- What are the options? Who can help?
- An understanding of the legislation around FM, HBA and FGM
- Know what action to take if someone is at risk
- Case Studies – best practice when handling cases of FM, HBA and FGM
